A clear strategic focus

Built on a clear market view and focused execution

What we have said since late 2020

Where we are now

Capital markets

2020: interest rates and property yields at / near all-time lows
2022: new higher rate reality, so values to continue to adjust

Adjustment to new reality ongoing
Values for best assets to start to stabilise in 2024

Customer demand

Best retail destinations to benefit from 'flight to prime'
Office demand to reduce, mostly in HQ space / B locations

Retail occupancy almost at pre-Covid levels and rents rising
Rents growing for the best space; secondary under pressure

Capital allocation

Sell where ability to add value is limited
Focus investment on clear value or long-term optionality

Sold £2.5bn, mostly large, single-let City / Docklands offices
Invested £1.9bn in profitable development, retail & mixed-use

Balance sheet

Reduce financial leverage

Net debt down £0.4bn, with ND / EBITDA of 7.2x

Successful delivery of our strategy

Well-placed for growth given decisive positioning for new reality

Best-in-class space

Nova, SW1

- › Quality of place and space key customer decision drivers
- › London portfolio now 76% in West End and Southwark
- › Expect low to mid-single digit ERV growth in London / retail

Decisive capital allocation

21 Moorfields, EC2

- › Decisive action based on clear view on risk / returns
- › Sold £2.2bn of mostly HQ offices in City / Docklands
- › Created value via investment at accretive returns

Future growth potential

Timber Square, SE1

- › Ready for new opportunities as markets adjust to new reality
- › Potential to enhance growth by leveraging platform value
- › Medium-term optionality in London/mixed-use pipeline

Growing resilient returns

Trinity, Leeds

- › Sector-leading balance sheet provides base for growth
- › Target 8-10% ROE via income, ERV growth and development
- › Expect EPRA EPS and dividend to grow over next two years

OUR THREE KEY COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGES

HIGH-QUALITY PORTFOLIO - STRONG CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIPS - UNLOCKING COMPLEX OPPORTUNITIES

Creating value through our competitive advantages

High-quality portfolio and strong customer relationships underpin growth

Central London

- › £17m of lettings signed or ISH, 3% above valuers' estimates
- › Occupancy +60bps to 96.5%, as footfall and demand grows
- › Recent pipeline 83% let or ISH; two new schemes with c. 12% yield on incremental spend

Major retail destinations

- › £24m of lettings signed or ISH, 6% ahead of ERV
- › Lease renewals now ahead of previous passing rent
- › Sales +4.0%, with LFL sales +5.4% vs pre-Covid levels and occupancy +100bps to 95.3%

Mixed-use urban

- › Progressing preparations at Mayfield and Finchley Road
- › Potential to start on site with first two projects in H1 2024
- › Enhancing plans for Lewisham and Glasgow to reduce carbon impact and optimise returns

£10.1bn portfolio

Reiterating full year guidance

Delivering sustainably

Significant progress on SBTi-endorsed targets to reach net-zero by 2040

- › Direct / indirect emissions -26% vs 2019/20 baseline
- › Energy intensity -19% vs new 2019/20 baseline
- › Upfront embodied carbon in pipeline -45% vs benchmark, improved from -36% in March
- › Progressing net zero investments, with retrofit of first air source heat pumps to start imminently
- › 44% of office portfolio EPC A-B, with net zero investments to come through by 2025+
- › Launched Landsec Futures fund to invest £20m over next decade to enhance social mobility

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Central London

Bifurcation in demand drives continued polarisation

- › Customers firmly focused on best-in-class space to attract and retain key talent
 - Transport connectivity
 - Sustainability credentials
 - Energising amenities
- › Consistent view that overall demand for UK offices would reduce, mostly in large HQ type space and locations which lack right amenities
- › c. 80% of subletting space in City / Docklands
- › Limited supply of space that ticks all key boxes, so pricing for best space continues to go up

Clear polarisation — total London office market vacancy by number of buildings¹

Sub-letting availability focused on large HQ buildings — space by sub-market

Central London

Significant portfolio repositioning to drive higher future returns

- › Sold £2.2bn of offices since late 2020
 - 83% HQ buildings let to single customers
 - 87% City plus our only asset in Canary Wharf
 - 100% let, with 4.4% yield on sale
- › Repositioned towards higher-return locations
 - 76% of portfolio now in West End / Southwark
 - Multi-let clusters in vibrant mixed-use areas
 - West End ERV growth well ahead of City
- › Appeal to talent underpins value for customers
 - LFL office utilisation continues to grow
 - Less than 1% of our space marketed for subletting

Central London portfolio — changes over last three years

Utilisation continues to grow — average daily footfall across Landsec portfolio

Central London

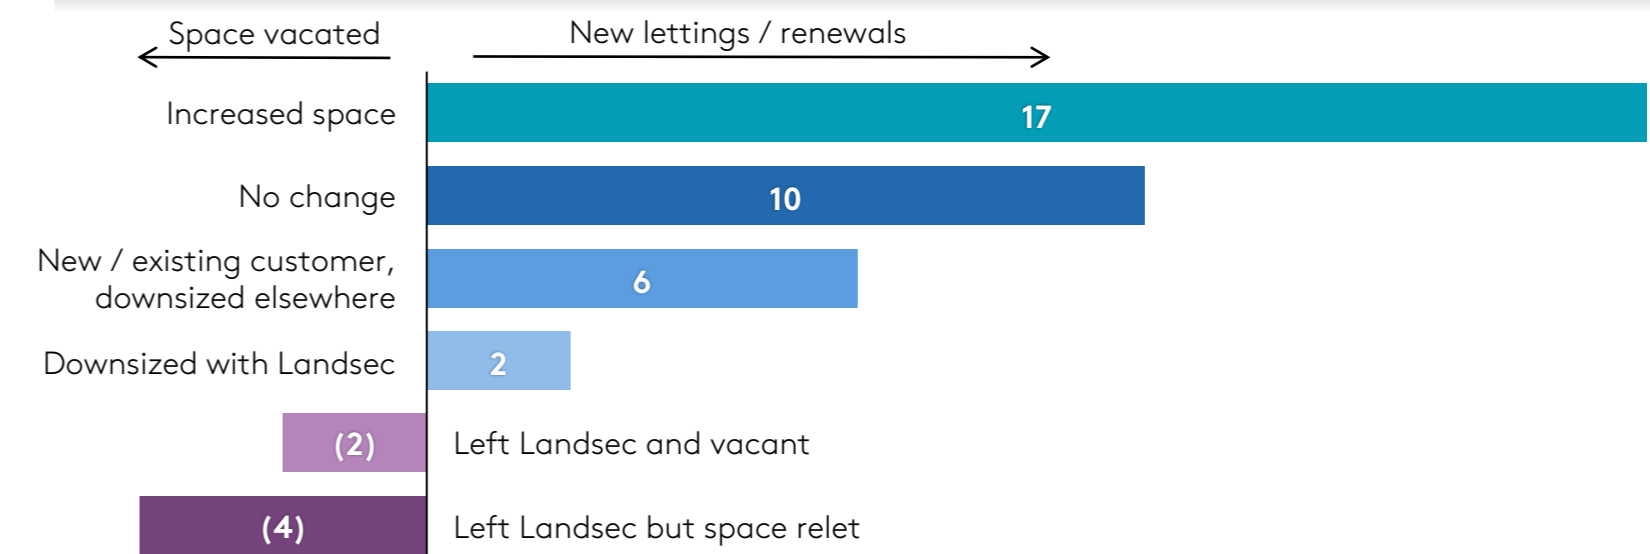

Strong customer demand underpinned by high-quality portfolio

- › Strong customer relationships reflected in demand
 - 27 of 35 leases signed in last 12 months involved customers upsizing or keeping same space
 - Space per person up vs pre-Covid norm
- › £14m of rent signed, 2% ahead of ERV
- › £3m of rent ISH, 5% above ERV
- › Overall occupancy up 60bps to 96.5%
 - Office vacancy just 3.3% vs 8.8% for London market
 - Victoria 100% let incl. recently completed development
- › Opening three new Myo locations this Autumn

Major retail destinations

Continuing to benefit from focus of brands on best destinations

- › Brands focused on omni-channel vs online / offline
- › Online non-food sales down for 26 consecutive months⁽¹⁾ as in-store sales continue to grow
- › Sales in our best-in-class locations continue to outperform brands' overall sales growth
- › Brands focused on 'fewer, bigger, better' stores
- › Catering for consumer demands for experience rather than convenience
- › Secondary locations to remain challenged, as rationalisation of store portfolios continues

Major retail destinations

Growth in sales underpins further growth in occupancy and rents

- › Total retail sales up 4.0% YoY, with LFL sales 5.4% above pre-pandemic levels
- › Continue to benefit from 'flight to prime'
- › £13m of lettings, in line with ERV
- › £11m of lettings ISH, 14% ahead of ERV
- › £4m of renewals 2% above previous passing rent
- › Overall occupancy stable at half year, but up 100bps since period-end to 95.3%
- › Rental values up 1.4% for six months, on track vs FY guidance of low to mid-single digit growth

Major retail destinations occupancy — continued growth over last three years

Shopping centre demand remains strong — last six months plus live deals

Major retail destinations

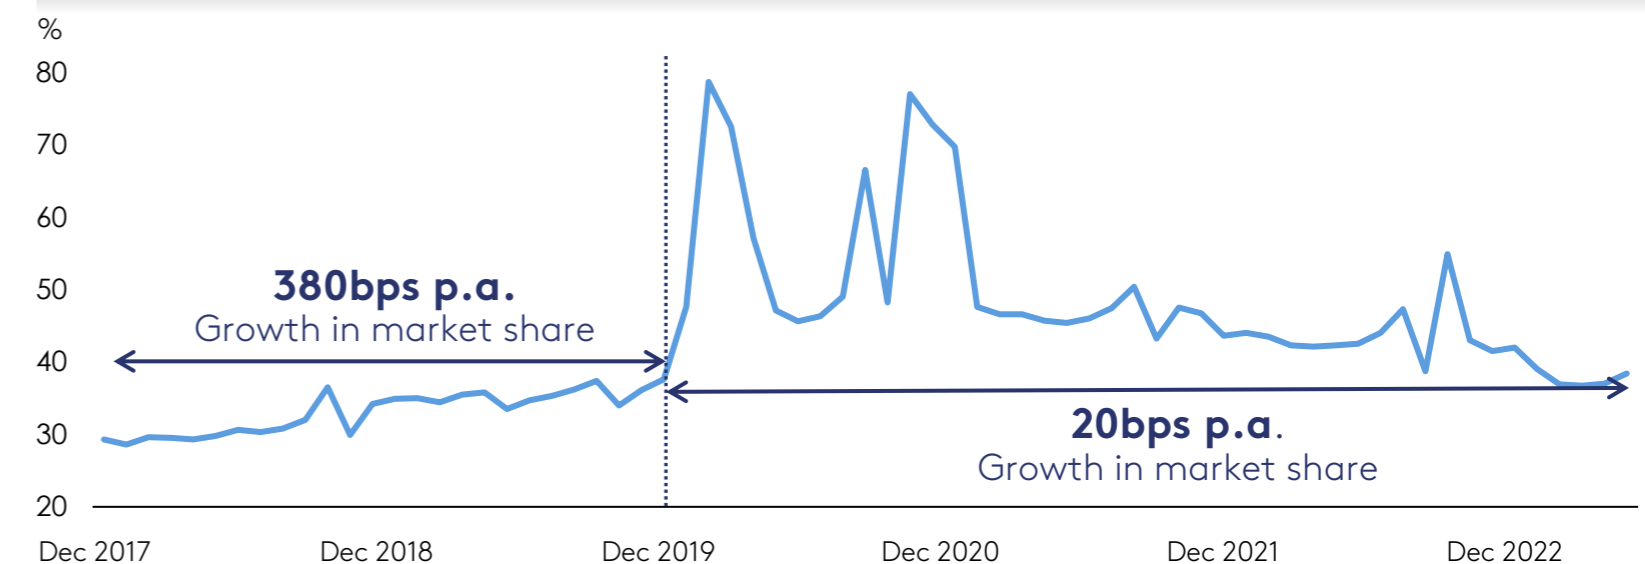

Potential to deliver high single / low double-digit returns

- › Resilient returns driven by high c. 8% income yield
- › Improved profitability for brands
- › Valuations remain at peak Covid levels, despite normalisation in online / offline sales
- › UK returns attractive in international context
- › Selectively increased exposure in last two years
- › Continue to explore opportunities to leverage growing platform value

Mixed-use urban neighbourhoods

Potential to create sustainable, thriving urban places

- › Strategy built on structural trend of demographic growth, urbanisation and changing city life
- › Driving long-term growth through creating thriving mixed-use places underpins broader portfolio
- › Focus on high-growth urban areas
- › Two near-term schemes with significant potential
- › Medium-term pipeline of future opportunities
- › Mindful of change in risk / return dynamics

- › Reiterating guidance on EPRA EPS
 - Broadly stable vs last year's underlying 50.1p this year
 - Return to growth year after
- › Dividend expected to grow by low-single digit percentage p.a. over next two years

Overview

Mark Allan

Well-positioned for new market reality

Actively building on key competitive advantages

- Focus on driving performance and potential future opportunities to enhance growth
- Robust customer demand for best-in-class space
- Subdued investment activity expected to pick up in 2024
- Values for best assets which offer rental growth expected to start to stabilise in 2024
- Ex-growth secondary assets further to fall
- Portfolio quality and balance sheet remain key, as successful execution of strategy provides both
